President's Report

Volunteers required - We are currently desperate for kiosk (and bar) volunteers for the pantomime so if you can spare a couple of hours to help it would be much appreciated.

Stage works - We are really pleased to let members know that we have all but completed the planning stages of the stage works and have booked a builder for August! We are re-skinning the stage, upgrading the catwalk area and reinforcing the area we use as a band mezzanine. This will not only bring us up to code but will also remove the issues of bouncy and noisy stage spots at last.

Busy bee - As part of the stage works we need to open up the under-stage area for the builders and get rid of 'junk' in the process. We are having a busy bee on Saturday 27th July at 10am.

Director's Evening - On Tuesday 16th July 2013 at 7:30pm we hope to have a number of prospective directors (and other production crew if they're interested) attend the theatre to discuss the process of putting on a production at our Theatre. Please spread the word as we can only put on shows if we have submissions!

Again...If you have any ideas for making our 80th year special please make contact!

Take care, Bree Hartley

Peter Pan Auditions - the play (not the musical)

Saturday 3rd & Sunday 4th August 2013

Director - Paul Treasure. Stage manager - Daniel Ramsell. Lighting and Special effects - Ben Davis

While there are many, many roles available. The three main roles are:

Wendy Darling – Eldest of the Darling children. Her stage age is around 12. We will happily consider girls older, but perhaps not much younger.

Peter Pan – This role is traditionally played by a woman, but quite often now played by a boy. We will happily consider anybody of either gender for the role.

Captain James Hook – Captain of the Jolly Roger (Traditionally doubled with Mr Darling).

If you wish to audition for one of these three roles, could you PLEASE prepare an audition piece. A monologue of some sort. I don't mind if you need to read it, as long as you have spent some thought preparing it. Although please, nothing from the show.

All other characters will not need prepared monologues. Rest of cast list is as follows:

The Darling Household: Mr Darling, Mrs Darling, Liza (the maid), John Darling, Michael Darling

The Lost Boys: Tootles, Nibs, Slightly, Curly and the Twins. (we are open to girls playing some of the lost boys)

The Pirates: Mr Smee, Gentleman Starkey and others

Indians: Tiger Lily and the rest of her tribe

Mermaids

Two final characters of note:

Nana – The Governess – is a dog! This is a difficult and challenging role for an extremely physical actor. Lots of action and no lines to learn! Gender of the performer is totally irrelevant.

Tinkerbelle – we will not be auditioning the role of Tinkerbelle! The role will be played traditionally as a point of light and an offstage bell.

We will be booking people in half hour blocks. Starting at 10:00am on Saturday and 12:00 noon on Sunday. Depending on what you are auditioning for, you may be asked to be in attendance for an hour or more.

Please email Paul on pauljtresure@gmail.com to book an audition time.

Prospective Director's Evening @ Roley

Tuesday 16th July 2013 at 7:30pm

The purpose of the evening is to showcase our beautiful theatre to anyone interested in directing a production with us, now or in the future. Attendees will have the opportunity to see all areas of our building, meet the committee, discuss how our theatre runs and ask any questions.

You don't need to be ready to submit a show to direct, or even be sure you want to direct at all - just come along a meet us and we will provide all the information we can.

We will be discussing our 2014 season on this evening, so if you have ideas or interests, please do attend to join in the conversation.

Potential directors, musical directors and production crew are welcome, including those who are experienced directing with us as well as those who have not directed at Roleystone previously.

Please express your interest, for catering purposes, to President Bree Hartley on enquiries@roleystonetheatre.com.au or 0402 014 666.

Charity performances - groups needed

The last dress rehearsal of any show at Roleystone Theatre is offered to various charity or local groups as a community outreach by the Theatre.

The charity or group have the option of selling tickets for either a part of the theatre seating or the whole theatre, at a profit to themselves. The theatre has a set fee to be paid to us, however as the group can set their own ticket prices they always come out on top.

We used to have a number of groups who regularly applied for these nights throughout a year however in recent times we have had to go looking for groups. If any members know of groups that may be interested please make contact ASAP!

Roleystone Theatre performers in 'Pete n Keely'

This hilarious musical tells the story of Pete Bartel and Keely Stevens, one of America's most loved singing/performing couples of the 50s. It's now it's 1968, and Pete and Keely are "back together" to revive their careers in a live television special.

The Australian Premiere of the show will be performed in June at Paul Peacock's Underground Cabaret at the Kings Perth Hotel. Lindsay McNab and Alan O'Neill, both veterans of the Perth theatre scene (and Roleystone Theatre performers), star as the singing duo. The production team also play an integral part in the story with Paul Peacock operating sound, Tim How as musical director, Shelly Ormerod as stage manager, and the choreography by Manuao TeAotonga adding that extra 1960's class and "cheese factor".
