

Roleystone Theatre
CALLBOY
June 2010

My Fair Lady

at Roleystone Theatre
July/August 2010

Book now as tickets are selling fast!

Submission Deadline: Please phone through or email your submissions for next month's callboy.

These need to be forwarded to me by the 1st of each month so there is plenty of time to get the edition completed, to the printer and then posted. Any information or photos are welcome and remember the callboy is a great way to let other members know what is going on in the world of theatre and 'normal life'.

Social Event - Car Rally

The car rally held on Sunday 13th June was a small affair but for those that participated it was a relaxing Sunday drive around our local area.

Sherrill had us driving around the back of Roleystone, out to McDonalds in Armadale and then finishing at Churchman's Brook for a picnic lunch. All the while we had to keep our eagle eyes peeled for the answers to the questions set along the way.

First prize went to the car carrying Penny Ramsell, Kathryn Ramsell and Michael Blucher.... followed closely by Bree Hartley, Daniel Ramsell and Cameron!

All agreed that it was a splendid way to spend such a gloriously sunny Sunday in June.

Thank you to Sherrill Wallis for organising yet another wonderful social event for our members.

Online Ticketing coming soon!

We are very excited to announce that the theatre website will soon provide an online ticketing service, using the secure PayPal system. You will be able to book and pay for your tickets online, including choosing your desired seats. However Bobbie and Gerry will still be available for bookings and payments in the traditional way for those who prefer.

The new online system is planned to be up and running for the play 'One Weekend in Dallas'. Our developer Jason Grima had hoped to be ready for My Fair Lady, but alas, a local power outage has caused causing some ongoing technical issues resulting from some fried hard-ware! The committee has seen the program in its trial form and are very excited by the ease of use for both the bookings officer and audience member alike.

ITA Treading the Boards 2010

Roleystone Theatre is to be the host for this year's I.T.A. 'Treading the Boards' concert.

A theme has not yet been set but the dates have! We will host the event on October 8th and 9th 2010.

Keep an eye out for further details.

Membership Renewal

Theatre membership expires at the end of March every year and this means it is membership renewal time. Please use the membership form with this Callboy, visit the theatre website (www.roleystonetheatre.com.au) to print one off, or pick one up from the Theatre when you come to see a show.

This membership form then needs to be returned to the Theatre, along with payment ASAP. You can join/renew at any time during the year but renewing on time ensures you still get the benefits of membership.

If payment is not received, you will cease to receive the callboy and other member benefits. If you paid your membership during the November/December 2009 time period, you are covered for 2010.

Please contact Kylie Grima (membership officer) on membership@roleystonetheatre.com.au if you have any queries.

Student Film Thankyou

Just wanted to say thanks again for letting us fundraise at the theatre. We made nearly $200 dollars from the lolly jar which more than enough paid for the costs of our short pilot scene. Now to fundraise the big bucks for the film. :P

Thanks again,
Kate Jones and Sam Warne

Armadale International Film Festival

The launch of the inaugural Armadale International Film Festival will officially be launched by Councillor Linton Reynolds, Mayor of the City of Armadale at the Armadale Amphitheatre on Tuesday June 4th at 4.10pm. The festival has a focus on children and youth highlighting films made by and for youth on the theme of Suburbia. The festival will take place between 29th and 31st October 2010.

This will be the only festival with an under 25 years old youth focus in the State and encourages and supports the development of artistic skills and the infrastructure necessary for a vibrant and innovative arts environment. The festival is seen as a catalyst for the promotion and growth of the City of Armadale. In addition it is anticipated the festival will contribute to a more effective, inclusive environment in which young people are an integral and positive part.

The event will be held over 3 days in Armadale and its environs. Activity will take place in the city Centre, and Araluen Country Club. Activities are being organized in collaboration with City of Armadale Youth Events Coordinator and the City's Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Advisory Group. The choice of films will take into account senior population needs. All international films chosen will have a multicultural bent.

The Festival Advisory Committee is led by local personalities including Professor Tony Buti, who is a long term Armadale resident and board member of the Armadale Redevelopment Authority and Kim Fletcher, long term Armadale resident and life member of the Roleystone Theatre.
