President's Report

'A Month of Sundays' - This play directed by Phil Mackenzie was a wonderful show with comedy, pathos and enough of a reality bite to make you stop and think. Stage Manager Gerry Chapman created a very homey set that was a pleasure for the cast to exist in.

Lap rugs required - If you love to knit, crochet or quilt rugs (or have such items laying around unused) the Roleystone Theatre would love to use your skills to create a set of lap rugs to be used by patrons (and members!) during the chilly winter months.

This year is the Roleystone Theatre's 80th Anniversary. As part of these celebrations we have a vaudeville themed night of entertainment on June 8th (see front page for details) so please bring your fiends and come along.

If you have any ideas for making our 80th year special please make contact! We are planning an open day for October 6th (10am - 3pm) and would love to have as many members helping out as possible. Even if you haven't been up to the theatre for a while your help would be invaluable. To offer assistance or seek further information please contact Kathryn Ramsell ph - 0428863241 email - katsie@live.com.au

Take care, Bree Hartley

April Junior Workshop

In the second week of the April school holidays 20 children aged eight to twelve took part in our first Junior Workshop for the year.

A HUGE thank you must go to Liz Hanich who upon hearing that we wanted to really focus on the younger generations put her hand up to run this workshop series. We are VERY lucky to have such an enthusiastic and committed member who made the leap!

Children who attended participated in exercises that built team work as well as theatre skills (vocal exercises, breathing techniques, improvisation etc), they also focussed on self awareness and had hands-on 'self-creative' time to explore their own ideas.

Theatre membership was included in the workshop in a bid to increase our numbers of juniors and hopefully retain some of them in future years!

A very successful workshop that was thoroughly enjoyed by the children.

A Month of Sundays

'A Month of Sundays' was certainly a comedy with heart. Written by Bob Larbey and Directed by Phil Mackenzie it followed the lives of two men in a care facility each facing the realities of growing older. The cast was strong and brought together Kim Martin, Ray Condy, Bree Hartley, Sharon Thomas, Liz Hanich and Simon O'Neill. Each and every one had performed with Roleystone before with this being Sharon and Ray's second production, Kim and Bree being regulars, and the return of Liz Hanich and Simon O'Neill to our stage after many years.
