Roley Theatre General Meeting

7:30pm sharp for our general meeting where we discuss the ongoing business of the theatre, discuss the 2011 season and raise any issues. There will be a light supper to follow.

We have not had a quorum at a General Meeting for a couple of years now so PLEASE attend and support the place that enables you to do that which you love. The place doesn't run by magic... and ideally it should be guided by the views of all members.

My Fair Lady

Submission Deadline: Please phone through or email your submissions for next month's Callboy.

These need to be forwarded to me by the 1st of each month so there is plenty of time to get the edition completed, to the printer and then posted. Any information or photos are welcome and remember the Callboy is a great way to let other members know what is going on in the world of theatre and 'normal life'.

President's Report

There is some positive news to report this month. The Electrical up-grade that we have been urgently waiting for has finally commenced. As you were all aware the Theatre's electrical system was not up to the BCA requirements. The City of Armadale has spent over $30,000.00 to put this right.

So far the work that has been carried out has been the following. New Emergency Lighting has been installed in the Bio Box, Entry, Men's & Women's Toilets. A mains powered smoke detector has been fitted in the Green Room. All the wiring in the Bio Box has been wired to a new circuit. R.C.D's (Residual Current Device) has been fitted to all power circuits. Vandal Proof Fluorescents have been fitted externally & these are fitted with P.E Cells. (Lights come on when the sun goes down). Also new sensors for external lights have been fitted. For me personally this is welcome news as the electrics were not in good shape. Work is still continuing & I will give you a full run down on completion.

We are still in negotiation on re-wiring the Auditorium with the Council & hopefully a date will be set later this year. Also the Tin Roof has to be replaced at the same time. We also have had some Quotes on the New Patio & will make a decision soon.

The City of Armadale have also given us funds to purchase new carpet for the Foyer. They are keen for this to go ahead soon. I have received a call from Mark from the Canning Floor Covering Centre and will soon be choosing new floor coverings. Also the council have budgeted for Painting as well and this will enable us to get the men's toilets completed. We are so lucky with the council. They have been excellent to deal with & to be offered these funds is truly amazing. They can see that we take great pride in our Theatre.

I will be reporting to you all at our General Meeting to be held on the 19th of October. Thank you all for all of your support & I will see you all at the Theatre.

Kiosk and Bar volunteers for 'Nine' - November/December

Regardless of whether you are a regular volunteer, or have never yet set foot in the bar or kiosk, we would like to hear from you with dates that you can be available to help out for our upcoming production of 'Nine'.

Many of the regular volunteers are involved with the show, or their partner is and they're 'left with the baby' so we really need fresh faces to fill the slots.

The kiosk role is simple and you are all finished after the cleanup following intermission. To volunteer in the bar you need to have your RSA certificate and preferably some bar experience (though this is not essential) and be willing to stay 'till the close of the bar after the show.

"ONE WEEKEND in DALLAS"

Written & Directed by Paul Abbott this show focused on Lee Harvey Oswald's brief time in custody, accused of shooting President John F Kennedy. This play had its World Premiere at the Theatre.

Paul says of his play "little is known about what went on behind the closed doors of Dallas authorities after Oswald was presumed guilty of Kennedys murder.

Basing the play on real life events and setting it between the bookends of JFK's assassination and Oswald's eventual killing. I felt great freedom in exploring every character while trying to portray them as accurately as possible."

Paul did a wonderful job in writing & directing this show & I hope those that came to see it loved it.
Zyg.

We need a few guinea pigs to test and provide feedback for our upcoming online booking and payment system.

If you're interested in being involved please email the developer Jason (jackbox.au@gmail.com) to volunteer.

You don't need to be super computer savvy, but you do need access to the internet.

Singers Needed for 'Carols in Minnowarra'

I am putting together a singing group (male and female) to perform 2 songs at the Minnowarra Carols on Sunday 5th December 2010. The event will run from approximately 5pm and at this point I am unsure of our performance time.

At least 1 of the songs will be performed with the Armadale City Concert Band accompanying us.

We will organise rehearsals in October and November dependent on people's availability. The songs should be quite a simple arrangement so will not be onerous to learn. We will instead be going for a beautiful sound with limited preparation time!!

Please contact me ASAP (details on front page) to put your name down ☺ and let me know when's good for rehearsals.

I hope many of you will be part of this community-spirited endeavour, Bree Hartley

'Nine' the musical – WA Premiere at Roleystone Theatre

Music & Lyrics by Maury Yeston, Book by Arthur Kopit
Adapted from the Italian by Mario Fratti

Director – Paul Treasure
Musical Director – Sarah Cosstick
Choreographer – Emma Stevenson

Guido Contini is a wreck. Torn between his wife, mistress, and the star he needs to make a great movie, he runs off to Venice. But the city does not help. In the end, only the past is able to save him.

Message from the Musical Director:

I am still after a flute and clarinet for the band of 'Nine'.

Acting is the most minor of gifts and not a very high-class way to earn a living. After all, Shirley Temple could do it at the age of four.

Katherine Hepburn

I love acting. It is so much more real than life.

Oscar Wilde

I enjoy being a highly overpaid actor.

Roger Moore

Acting is merely the art of keeping a large group of people from coughing.

Sir Ralph Richardson

I'm a skilled professional actor. Whether or not I've any talent is beside the point.

Michael Caine

Be nice to people on your way up because you meet them on your way down.

Jimmy Durante

I never said all actors are cattle; what I said was all actors should be treated like cattle.

Alfred Hitchcock
